INTERNATIONAL GUARD POLICY

1   Overview

   1.1   This policy sets out the requirements that apply to International Guards that want to become members of Raglan Surf Life Saving Club.

   1.2   The Constitution, Regulations and supplementary policies such as the Overnight Stay, Clubhouse and Clubhouse Access Policies that augment this policy.

2   Aims

   2.1   To establish standard rules and protocols for international guards joining the club to be eligible for PLS

   2.2   To maintain a high level of tidiness of the club house

   2.3   To ensure International Guards know and meet club expectations well they are Members of Raglan Surf Life Saving Club.

3   General

   3.1   Requirements

      (a)   International Guards are required to be paid members of RSLSC before their membership is approved.

      (b)   International Guards will be required to read, agree and sign the Clubhouse Access Policy, Overnight Stay Policy, Club House Policy and Code of Conduct.

      (c)   International Guards agree to Patrol Voluntarily for at least one weekend day every week they stay at the clubhouse.

      (d)   International Guards will be responsible for the tidiness of the kitchen, club room, bedrooms, gear shed and any equipment used during their stay.

      (e)   Use of Equipment is via prior approval of the International Guard Co Ordinator or Gear Stewart. Any damages must be reported immediately.

   3.2   Accommodation

      (a)   RSLSC will provide accommodation from no earlier than Tuesday the 24th of October until the commencement of work for SLSNR PLS

      (b)   During week days before the commencement of the PLS season International Guards are welcome to occupy their own rooms.

      (c)   If a conflict between SLSNR paid staff and International Guards arises SLSNR staff will have priority for accommodation.

      (d)   During weekends when voluntary guards are staying International Guards will be required to condense into a single bunk room from Friday night.

      (e)   RSLSC will provide accommodation to a maximum of 6 International Guards at any one time.